

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
OAKLAND DIVISION

WALKME LTD., an Israeli company, and
WALKME INC., a Delaware corporation,

Plaintiffs,

v.

WHATFIX, INC., a Delaware corporation,
and WHATFIX PL, an Indian company,

Defendants.

CASE NO. 4:23-cv-03991-JSW

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO RETAIN CONFIDENTIALITY

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Hearing Date: July 19, 2024

Time: 9:00 AM

Courtroom: 5 – 2nd Floor

Judge: Jeffrey S. White

1 Upon consideration of the pleadings, briefing, materials of record, and any oral argument
2 presented, it is hereby ORDERED that Plaintiffs' Motion to Retain Confidentiality is GRANTED
3 for at least the following reasons:

4 Defendants have not established that Plaintiffs have waived their confidentiality
5 designations. Plaintiffs have established that good cause exists to retain the challenged
6 confidentiality designations, and Defendants have not demonstrated any prejudice that would
7 outweigh the risk of disclosure. The redacted portions of WalkMe's Second Amended Complaint
8 and the exhibits thereto, and the WalkMe videos produced with Bates Nos. KKWM00000001–
9 KKWM00000060, shall retain their confidentiality designations.

10 Accordingly, the Court GRANTS Plaintiffs' Motion to Retain Confidentiality.

11
12 IT IS SO ORDERED.

13
14
15
16 Dated: _____, 2024

HON. JEFFREY S. WHITE
United States District Court Judge